Deanery Compline

A fairly new initiative in our Deanery is the idea of coming together every couple of weeks (over the warmer months!) in different churches around the Deanery to hear about the parish, church and people and then say Compline together. The services start at 7.30pm and all are very welcome. Here are the dates for the rest of the year:

24th August, Friday: St Swithin's, Ashmanhaugh
10th September, Monday: St Michael's, Irstead
25th September, Tuesday: St Peter's, Ridlington
10th October, Wednesday: St Catherine's, Ludham

TUESDAY STALLS

*Every Tuesday,
St Mary's Stalham
from 9am - midday.*

Books ~ Cakes ~ Bric a Brac ~ Produce (when available) and tea and coffee. Do come along for some goodies and a chat.

If you have any spare produce or plants over the summer which you'd like to donate to be sold for church funds, we would love to receive them, and the same goes for bric a brac, books and of course cakes if you would like to make any for the stall. Thank you!

On Sunday 19th August there will be a Vintage & Collectors Street Fair on Stalham High Street from 10am-4pm.

Please note the High Street will be closed to traffic, so if you need to drive into St Mary's you will only be able to access from the Brumstead Road entrance.

St Mary's will be open from midday until 3 or 4pm serving drinks and cakes. If you could help on the day or provide cake then please let Emma know. Thank you.
